Global Knowledge becomes a Google Certified Training Partner to deliver Google Search Appliance courses across EMEA region

Global Knowledge, the worldwide leader in IT and Business training, today announced that it has joined the Google Enterprise Partner program and is specializing in delivering instructor-led Google Search Appliance Training in Europe, Middle East and Africa.

Google Enterprise Partners are experts who provide value-added services and integrated products to Google customers. The program is in place to facilitate Google partners' business growth, from understanding new product features to supporting new software and services development, including in-depth product training.

"We are committed to delivering value to Google's enterprise search customers through our training and learning solutions in EMEA", said Richard Pryor-Jones, President EMEA of Global Knowledge.

Peter Lorant, Google's Head of Enterprise Channels, EMEA stated: "I am excited to have Global Knowledge as a Certified Training partner for our Google Search Appliance in EMEA. The in-depth, hands-on, instructor-led training Global Knowledge can now provide will ensure that Google Enterprise customers and partners gain the most business value from the Google Search Appliance for their enterprise search needs."

Global Knowledge will be scheduling Google Search Appliance courses from October in EMEA.
